

2023 Harold Love Outstanding Community Service Award NOMINATION

The Harold Love Outstanding Community Service Award is a program administered by the Tennessee Higher Education Commission, recognizing dedicated public service by individuals in the higher education sector. Institutions are permitted to nominate up to two nominees in each category, and from those statewide nominations, awards of $1,000 each will be made to five students and five faculty/staff members.

UTC asks for your involvement in the process by nominating deserving students, faculty, or staff members. To make a nomination, please complete the form below and submit with any appropriate attachments to alexis-hurley@utc.edu by Wednesday, March 1, 2023.

Nominees must be current undergraduate or graduate students, or faculty/staff at UTC. The Chancellor and Executive Leadership Team will make a determination as to which nominees UTC sends forward for statewide consideration.

Nominator Information

Name:

Email:

Phone:

Nominee Information

Name:

Email:

Phone:

Status (student/faculty/staff):

Short Biography (150 word limit):

[ form continues on next page ]

Description of nominee's outstanding public service, including the lasting impact on individuals, groups, or organizations served:

Evidence of Impact. Please provide a link to one (only one) news article, press release, news media (video) clip, program brochure or newsletter, or program website related to nominee's service or attach a separate file with such evidence.

External Endorsement. Please submit one (1) letter of recommendation from an off-campus community member not related to the nominee.